”HERE IT WAS TIME TO STOP,
A LAND TO LIVE IN, HORSES AND MEN, FOR A LONG TIME ...”

Attilio Bertolucci

It is not easy to speak of a vast land, but not only of dimensions, of emotions that it gives you when you visit it. Parma, Piacenza their provinces and Lunigiana. Borderlands, of ancient flavors that bind to their castles, crossed by as many paths, bathed by crystalline lakes, rushing rivers and warmed by spas and barboi. Medieval villages dominate the High Valleys, while going down to the plains you meet sinuous hills full of vineyards, and finally you arrive at the great river, the Po. This journey will take you to discover unique foods, cold cuts, cheeses, mushrooms, chestnuts ... breathtaking landscapes linked to nature and to the mastery of building geniuses, cathedrals, theaters, temples... engines... museums... art... companies that are the excellence of Made in Italy all over the world.

We welcome you to our land ...

A JOURNEY INTO SPIRITUALITY

The land of the Ducati has been a pilgrimage destination for millennia

Explore Parma, from a religious point of view, with our guide you can admire our city through the Duomo, its churches and religious symbols. You can get to know sacred places, including the Sanctuary of Fontanellato dedicated to the Blessed Virgin de Rosario, but also along ancient roads such as the Via Francigena.

The cultures of Parma: A day tour, where we will base the morning for the visit of the Cathedral, the Baptistry with the bas-reliefs of Antelami to finish with the Diocesan museum. In the afternoon we will take you to the old part of the city and through the stories of a cultural mediator, we will make you discover a side of the city, a meeting point of migrations between different cultures.

Parma between faith, art and good food: a day tour, where we will base the morning for the visit of the Cathedral, the Baptistry with the bas-reliefs of Antelami and ending with the church of San Giovanni. In the afternoon we will move to Fontanellato to visit the Sanctuary of the Blessed Virgin of the Rosary and the largest Labyrinth in the world wanted by the famous publisher "Franco Maria Ricci".

The religious treasures of Parma. A tour that we can organize as an excursion by reducing the points of interest to the oldest and most sacred square of the city "Piazza Duomo" with the Cathedral and the Baptistry. But also by expanding the Via Francigena over several days with walking or bus routes, admiring the beautiful churches and some xenodochio.

“WHAT CAN YOU DO TO PROMOTE WORLD PEACE?
GO HOME AND LOVE YOUR FAMILY.”

OUR PROPOSALS TO CREATE THE PUZZLE OF YOUR TRAVELS

Like a true tailor, the 7 Star staff will sew the perfect tour on your journey, in our lands.

A few kilometers from Parma you will find yourself in the Tuscan-Emilian Apennines. Between parks and mountains up to 2000 meters, packages linked to trekking, mountain-bike, e-bike excursions, with hiking guides or private and exclusive tours.

If you come to Parma you cannot help but fall in love with the art of music. This area has always been closely linked with it, we will transport you on this gentle tour among theaters, museums, birthplace houses including that of Verdi, Toscanini and Bertolucci and villas like those of Paganini.

We remind you that we have the tastiest cycle path in the world, "the food Valley bike" where between a ride and the other you can stop to taste and visit our excellences, from Parma to the Terre Verdiane.

With more than 40 visible castles and in many cases real accommodation facilities, we can build you a journey linked to history or make you Princes and Princesses for a weekend.

We also organize tours between several castles, with themed dinners or period re-enactments.

Being in the food Valley means organizing gastronomic tours, where we will let you know and "taste" our excellence. In a few days you will be able to see how the forms of Parmigiano Reggiano are born, or our cured meats including Prosciutto Crudo di Parma, Salami di Felino and Culatello di Zibello. But also to visit vineyards with Lambrusco and Malvasia. We have seasonal tours to discover and search for mushrooms, chestnuts and truffles. We will organize cooking classes or visits to local companies. We will take you to know the Testaroli with hare ragù or pesto, and the various savory pies, but also typical sweets Borgo Val d Taro and Potremoli ... 'gli amor "

"I need to know
the history of a food. I need to know where it comes from. I need to imagine the hands that have grown, worked and cooked what I eat."

(Carlo Petrini)

A large wedge of cheese, possibly Parmigiano Reggiano, is shown on a wooden surface. A knife with a wooden handle is stuck into the top of the cheese. The background is a soft, out-of-focus brown.
